Study in the Book of John - Lesson 18 - (Assigned Reading: John 11)

1. Why did Jesus choose to delay His arrival, knowing the grief it would cause Mary and Martha?

2. What does it mean practically for a Christian today to "walk in the day" so that they do not stumble? (vs. 8-11)

3. Why is this specific confession of Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, the foundational bedrock for our faith and our admission into the church today? (vs. 21-27)

4. What does Jesus's emotional response teach us about the nature of God? (vs. 33-36)

5. Why does God frequently ask human beings to participate in obedience—doing what we are physically capable of doing—before and after He displays His life-changing power? (vs. 38-44)

6. How can the exact same evidence produce such drastically different responses in human hearts? (vs. 45-53)
